

GWEN FULCHER YOUNG

Gwen Fulcher Young is the broker and president of Gwen Fulcher Young and Associates Real Estate Company, a full service real estate company. She is also founder and president of Real Estate Review LTD, a state accredited school for training Realtors® and providing continuing education.

Having 32 years experience as a top Realtor® in the Augusta market, licensed in both Georgia and South Carolina, Gwen was the first woman to receive the coveted Commercial Trophy given by the Augusta Board of Realtors, as well as numerous other awards for results in the practice of both residential and commercial real estate brokerage. Gwen holds many professional designations. She was inducted into the International Real Estate Hall of Fame.

Gwen is the only woman member of the Georgia Real Estate Commission, an appointment made by the Governor. She recently completed two terms as chair of the board, which is responsible for licensing and regulating all real estate brokers, agents and real estate transactions in Georgia.

Gwen's community involvement includes co-founding the popular Tuesday's Music Live concert series at St. Paul's Church. She is a Rotary International Paul Harris Fellow, a de Tocqueville Society member of the United Way, and a founding member of Women in Philanthropy. Gwen is an avid supporter of causes impacting women and children. She was named Woman of Excellence in 2007.

Her love of gardens and gardening includes life membership in the Garden Club of Georgia and the Augusta Rose Society. She is a Master Flower Show Judge Emeritus.

Gwen grew up in Augusta and is quick to tell people how much she loves the city. She is married to former Augusta Mayor, Bob Young, who recently completed service in Washington, DC as Assistant Deputy Secretary of HUD. She adores her two daughters and her grandchildren.
